Elexicon Energy Board Chair Announces Appointment of New Director

AJAX, ON -- September 11, 2019 – Elexicon Energy Board Chair Paul Murphy is pleased to announce the appointment of Nicole McNeill to the utility’s Board of Directors. McNeill, who is currently President and Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) of the Municipal Property Assessment Corporation (MPAC), will serve a three-year term as an independent director on the Elexicon Energy Board.

“Nicole brings a wealth of experience and expertise complementary to that already in place on the Board,” said Murphy. “She has demonstrated throughout her career the ability to work successfully in different environments, while leading and building diverse, high performing, talented and engaged teams. I look forward to working alongside Nicole,” added Murphy.

“I am delighted to join the Board of Elexicon Energy as we chart a new strategic direction for the company while continuing to build on the successful track record of the former legacy companies – Veridian Connections and Whitby Hydro,” commented McNeill. “I live and work in Durham Region so I know first-hand the value of reliable energy services.”

Since joining MPAC in 2011, McNeill has had accountability for many functions including Finance, Human Resources, Information Technology, Customer Contact Center, Facilities Management and Procurement. She earned a Bachelor of Commerce degree from York University, went on to become a Chartered Accountant – Chartered Professional Accountant and has received the Institute of Corporate Directors designation. McNeill has been a Mentor in the Top 200 Management Program at Ryerson University for the past several years, has been a speaker and panelist at several conferences and is a published author in CA Magazine.
